Re: United States v. Steve Campbell
19-cr-212 (VEC)

Dear Judge Caproni:

I represent Mr. Steve Campbell in the above referenced-matter. I write to request permission for Mr. Campbell to be able to travel to Brockton, MA.

Sadly, Mr. Campbell's nephew died this week. A memorial is being held on July 4, 2020 at 2pm. The memorial will take place at 580 Pearl Street Brockton, MA 02301. Exhibit A. Mr. Campbell wants to go be there for his brother and grieve with his family. His tentative plan is to leave July 2, 2020 and return July 6, 2020. He would be staying with his brother, Tyon Campbell at the above address.

I spoke with his pretrial services officer, Muhammad Ahmed. Mr. Ahmed has no objection with the condition that Mr. Campbell email him his final itinerary once it is set. The government agrees with pretrial services so long as Mr. Campbell follows Mr. Ahmed's request.

If the request to travel is granted, defense counsel will email pretrial services Mr. Campbell's finalized itinerary as soon as it is available.

Thank you for your consideration.

Application GRANTED. Mr. Campbell is advised to adhere to social distancing and mask-wearing guidelines.

SO ORDERED.

HON. VALERIE CAPRONI
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE

Respectfully,
